WOMEN REBUILDING AFRICA PROGRAMME (WRAP)

Presents

LEADERSHIP AND GOOD GOVERNANCE PROGRAMME

Introduction

Africa has been characterized by lack of leadership and good governance. With on going political conflicts in many parts of the Continent as well as economic instability, there is a huge need for more women to step in, alongside men and find strategic solutions to various challenges faced by the Continent.

Leadership and Good Governance Programme is designed to develop the leadership potential of women decision makers in order to unlock peace and stability on the Continent. It is designed to enhance real empowerment for women to understand their leadership role.

Programme outline

This intense, practical and interactive 7-day programme covers the multifaceted dimensions of leadership of women and is designed around four (4) most challenging areas faced by Africa:

- Leadership
- Good Governance
- Conflict Resolutions
- Women Economic Empowerment

Leadership

The issue of leadership is increasingly becoming one of the important tools to unlock true sustainable development on the Continent. Engaging in the issue of women in leadership will equip women to participate actively in the future of their respective Countries.

Good Governance

In this topic, emphasis is put on the accountability of both public and private sectors in order to create an efficient public and private administration for the benefit of all. The following topics are covered:

- Public Accountability
- Anti-corruption measures in both public and private sectors
- Ethical Governance (policies and best practices)
- Strengthening the culture of transparency

Good governance is critically needed in Africa, especially if we are to achieve the UN Millennium Development Goal of halving poverty by 2015.

Conflicts Resolution

Political instability is one of the very serious issues challenging peace and stability of Africa. This module will facilitate the engagement of women in multifaceted dimensions of promotion of peace. Women are encouraged to embrace transformational values and promote peaceful co-existence.

Following topics are covered:

- Forgiveness
- Peace Building
- Process of Reconciliation
- Peace maintenance

Women Economic Empowerment

This topic will to explore the level of partnership between government and women movements.

How women are organizing themselves to engage with government and how government is responding to the call of women. What are the challenges and proposed solutions that will possibly bring the women and government together in order to build strong partnerships that will eventually contribute o the economic empowerment of women in each country. How are political leaders representing women influencing decision making process in their countries?

Objectives

Leadership and Good Governance Programme for Women of Africa offers women in leadership across Africa a unique opportunity to acquire some of the most powerful leadership perspectives and best practices from various experts and leaders across Africa and beyond. This programme is set to:
